

A Nose in a Rose Or To Be and ETC.

By Adaline Cortez

In the Merry month of May, things just "ain't" going my way!

May Day, while visiting the rose gardens at Exposition Park, a Ferdinand instinct possessed me and I bent over for a sniff only to find that a monstrous little bee had picked on the same rose for IT'S whiff.

That's only ONE of the things that happened to me—but enough of that.

However, May Day fulfilled all its happy promises for eight ladies who attended the Job's Daughters Luncheon and Fashion Show in Gardena.

Connie Gastelum, Ruth Towell, Ruth Bruce, Ann Collins, Myrtle Dyer, Penny McCausland, Audrey Richter, and Phyllis Considine won prizes.

Both Ruth Towell and Phyllis Considine won prizes.

Pat Stamm, Ann West, Joan Lewis, of Glenburn Avenue, are taking sewing lessons.

Jerry and Ed King, 17412 Glenburn Ave., spent several days in Las Vegas with friends Jackie and Jay Stroh.

They saw all the floor shows and did the usual thing. I don't know what else they were able to bring back from Las Vegas but they do have a TERRIFIC tan.

Ann and Dick West, 17507 Glenburn Ave., entertained Marie and Joe Henslie and Connie and Ralph Gastelum at a poker party Saturday night.

Glenn and Gay Lee Terry celebrated their ninth and sixth birthdays by attending the Grauman's Chinese showing of "Prince Valiant" with their parents.

Their guests were Larry Walker and Janice Landers. After a stop at a drive-in for hamburgers and malts they drove home for the Birthday cake.

Duane Sherwood's brother, Bruce, from Fresno visited with the Sherwoods over Sunday.

Betty and Henry Brewer, 17032 Glenburn Ave., attended the 42nd reception at the church at which they were married. They met friends of their childhood as well as members of their wedding party whom they had not seen in several years.

Sunday guests at the Clinton Beeson's 3440 West 176th St., the Larry Waggoners now of Westchester, were formerly of North Torrance.

Last week Betty Brewer spent a whole afternoon aboard a luxury liner attending a bon voyage party for her sister-in-law's family who will visit in South America for four months.

The eldest son in our family, Eric, was all smiles Sunday. He made his First Communion and of course the day was turned over to him. The family gathered at the Chalon for late breakfast and the rest of the day was spent in counting his gifts and carrying out his whims.

Keep May 15th open! The North Torrance Civic Improvement Association is sponsoring a Hard Times dance, proceeds of which are to go to the Dental Health Program. Donations will be $1.50, and there will be refreshments and prizes.

"A hillbilly gathering in celebration of Pat Kelly's 10th birthday was pronounced a success when the McCoy's caught a Hatfield trying to slip in and killed 'im daid on the spot. The still was tapped and kickapoo juice flowed quite freely.

Miss Silco's new spring bonnet created quite a stir and entitled Miss Ainsworth's banana hat will certainly be a topic for conversation for some time to come. Miss Ferrin's outfit put her in the lead for the title "Miss Hillbilly of 1954."

Social success was assured with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Snuffy Smith (Gary and Susan Curtis) from Downey.

Those present at this special occasion were Gary, Kempy and Susan Curtis of Downey, Tine Joe Ainsworth, Ann Gustafson, Charlene Silco, Jean Girardo, Pamela Warner, Phyllis Ferrin, Dorothy Parsons, Barbara Heys, Janet Graff, Mary Louise Payne, and the honoree Patsene Kelly."

Former London Aquarium Official Appointed Marineland Aquarist

David Brown, former marine section aquarist for the London Aquarium at Regent Park Zoo, has been appointed chief aquarist at Marineland of the Pacific, the world's largest oceanarium, located at Portuguese Bend.

The appointment of Brown Kenneth Norris, curator of the $3,000,000 oceanarium now under construction.

he joined the staff of the London Zoological Society and served as aquarist from 1949. Brown came to California in 1952 and has continued his work with marine life on the Pacific Coast.

Exhibit Features. The huge oceanarium will feature two four-story tanks, each with a capacity of 500,000 gallons of salt water, a smaller aquarium for tropical fish and a sealarium. One of the main tanks will be circular, 80 feet in diameter and 26 feet deep. It will have a 1500-seat stadium around its rim so that spectators may watch the porpoises and other sea animals perform. Cold water animals such as shark, giant rays, porpoises, sea bass and groupers will be housed here.

An oval tank, 100 by 50 feet and 26 feet deep, will have warm water for tropical species. A reef of Philippine coral will be constructed to provide refuge for the smaller fish from their natural enemies.

Through large picture windows at various depths of the tank spectators may observe thousands of sea animals living together under natural conditions.

Brown's responsibilities at the oceanarium will include the safe handling and feeding of the sea animals, adapting captive fish to life in the display tanks and training the seals and porpoises for daily performances.

Smog Curbs Installed at Sunset Oil

Completion of the gasoline storage tank smog control program at Sunset Oil Company's Torrance plant was announced this week by the Air Pollution Control District. Four tanks now leased to the U.S. Army were included in the conversion.

Approximately two and one-half tons of smog-forming gasoline vapors will be kept from the atmosphere by the vapor recovery system connected to a vaporsphere, compressor, and flare. District Director Gordon P. Larson said of the Torrance installations.
